

ZOOMAWAY CANCELLATION POLICY:

Zoomaway provides its clientele with a 72 hour cancellation policy for all of its services with the exception of large group outings which are defined by a individual contract provided to the group leader. Cancellation policies for certain clients can vary and Zoomaway will pass on the client (host) cancellation policy. Zoomaway provides technology solutions to businesses and their individual cancellation policies are supported and outlined in all of our technology pieces and customers must agree to these policies before proceeding to finishing their transactions.
